

ComplianceLine brings you Engaging and Effective Sexual Harassment Training for Healthcare

The #MeToo movement has shined a light on the pervasive problem of workplace sexual harassment, and the healthcare industry is no exception. Adopting a modern, interactive approach to discrimination and harassment training can help HR professionals in healthcare promote a respectful, inclusive workplace and improve recruiting and employee engagement.

EDUCATE | MOTIVATE | INFLUENCE

ComplianceLine's award-winning Preventing Discrimination and Harassment in Healthcare interactive training shows employees and managers how to recognize and respond appropriately to harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and other misconduct they may encounter in a medical or healthcare environment. The course focuses on positive behavior and decision-making through bite-sized episodes and interactive, live-action videos tailored for the healthcare industry.

The training is available in multiple languages and in separate versions for Employees and Managers, who have additional responsibilities to prevent and report workplace misconduct.
